

Death Valley XXII

A SoCal AMCA International Road Run Sponsored by SoCal AMCA & Max Bubeck.

ITINERARY

Monday Oct 6:

Arrival and check in begins by 3 pm. Familiarize your self with the lay of the land. Ride over to the visitor's center and learn about the area.

Dinner is on your own. If you are early, consider a 45 mile ride to Stove pipe wells for a nice dinner. Gas is available. Make sure your lights work for the ride home.

6 pm: Non mandatory rider's meeting 500 bldg, Max's room
POOL is open until 10 pm

8:00 PM optional night ride and star gazing. Zabiski Point & Pool side movies??

Tuesday Oct 7:

0800: Coffee available at the club room. Breakfast in your own

0900 Rider's meeting in front of Hotel near the wagon display,

09:15 Leave for the day's ride. The destination is Scotty's castle, Beatty NV (fuel), and the dry lake bed in NV midway between Highway 95 and Scotty's Castle. If this is your first time you want to go to Scotty's and take the tour. There is NO gas there. It is about 120 round trip. You can go into Beatty first for fuel and food and then up 95 to Scotty's or the other way around. Let us know your route and gas needs. The dry lake bed is in NV on the road from 95 to Scotty's. It is a great place for some dream bike drags... Noon to 2.

4-6 is happy hour at the hotel

Dinner is on your own.

8:00 PM: Optional night ride and star gazing; Golden Canyon parking lot. Pool side movies??

Wednesday Oct 8:

0800: Coffee available at the club room. Breakfast in your own

0900: Rider's meeting in front of Hotel near the wagon display,

09:15: Leave for the day's ride.

Traditional ride: out to bad water in the morning with a return through Artists Pallet and other sight seeing areas. Lunch on your own at Furnace creek. 1:00 pm leave for a ride out to Dante's view and a coasting event (slow race) down to Furnace creek.

Non-Traditional ride. Go to Badwater. Continue south and around to Shoshone on 189, back up to DV junction on 127 and 190 and on to Dante's view (@ 130) Gas at Shoshone.

6 PM No Host cocktails under the Palm Trees

6:30 BBQ and awards. Ranch style out under the date palms.

9:00 event is complete, SoCal thanks you for coming!